

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

MARDIE CALDWELL, C.O.A.P.

Mardie Caldwell, is a nationally-recognized authority on adoption. A Certified Open Adoption Practitioner, Caldwell founded Lifetime Adoption Center in 1986. She has assisted in over 3,000 successful adoptions nationwide.

Caldwell is dedicated to educating and helping birth parents and adoptive parents through teaching, motivational speaking, writing, and being the talk show host of Let's Talk Adoption. Author of a number of award winning books, Caldwell has made more than 200 appearances on television, including NBC's The Today Show, The 700 Club, The Larry King Show, CNN, Fox, ABC, CBS, PBS, BBC, CBN, and The Dr. Laura Show. She has been featured on hundreds of national radio shows and is widely sought for print articles.

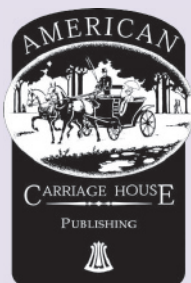

As a Christian and adoptive mom, Caldwell believes the path that lead her to adopt was God preparing her for the work she does today in adoption.

HEATHER FEATHERSTON

Heather Featherston is passionate about working with women and families facing issues surrounding pregnancy, adoption, and parenting. Her experience serving people touched by adoption brings a unique perspective to her insights and knowledge.

As an adoption expert and advocate, Featherston has spoken to and taught professional groups, and has made television and radio appearances discussing various aspects of adoption. She has assisted adoptive parents and birth mothers moving through adoption decisions and discerning the Lord's will. Featherston openly admires God's hand over each child and family brought together through adoption.
